| 1 | Letter no C 622/30 D/ 2.1.1931 from the Chief Commandant's Office. citing orders of Govt. as to whether Good Conduct Pay may be included in the term "Regimental allowances" for purposes of calculation of pension under Rule 55 of Appendix K. Submitted with references. The Chief Commandant has not ~~made clear~~ explained why this allowance "Good Conduct pay" was not included in the list forwarded by him in 1928 (Flag K.) and why he did ~~not~~ include in the cases he submitted with his letter no C. 622/30 D 3.12.1930 (Flag M.) The point for consideration however is whether this allowance is of the nature of a duty allowance and if so whether it may be counted for pension in the case of non commissioned officers whose pension is now calculated on average pay and allowances as in the case of Commissioned Officers. Conduct pay is included for calculation of gratuity.

It is not apparent why the "schamshive list" should have omitted this particular point But the fact that it is taken for calculation of gratuity which is only pension in another form would appear to involve the recognition of its being of the nature of a duty allowance.
It may be specifically ordered to be included

S+A 424-30-1

To

B.Srinivasa Iyengar Esq., B.A.,B.L.,
Financial Secretary to Government of His Highness
the Maharaja of Mysore, Bangalore.

SIR,

With reference to Government Order No.Fl.5017-18/S&A 164-28 dated 19th December 1930 forwarding addenda and Corrigenda to M.S.R (from Rule 47 to 68) I have the honour to state that in Rule 55 of appendix K. it is stated that "Pension will be calculated on the pay plus allowances of the appointment". In this connection, I would invite your reference to my Fl.202/10th November 1928 forwarding an exhaustive list of Regimental allowances, to the General Secretary to Government and Government Order No.8447-8/Mily. 24-28-8 dated 18th January 1929 thereon and to state that the Good Conduct Pay is not included in the list sent up to Government. But in the statements forwarded to you with my letter No.C.622/30 dated 3rd December 1930, the same was included for purposes of calculating the pensions on average emoluments.

As there is no specific mention made in the correction slip received with Government Order of 19th December 1930 regarding the inclusion of Good Conduct Pay for calculating pension, I request --- specific orders of Government as to whether the Good Conduct Pay may be included or not for this purpose.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

for Chief Commandant,
Mysore State Troops.
